Schneider 640), creased and cracked along top of shield, otherwise about very fine, a very rare variety £1000-1500

A bewildering variety of stops, abbreviations and legends appears on the Bristol gold coins of the period. That said, the above combination seems to be rare, assuming that the unclear mintmark on the reverse is in fact William Sharrington's WS monogram. The nearest that the cataloguers could find was in Lockett, part XIII, no. 4345, described as 'rare' and illustrated on plate VI, where the obverse marks were very similar to the above but the reverse die had the more standard Bristol reading of D G ANGLIE....
